MEETING PROPOSAL

ZHANG Wei

Proposal for a Webinar on Architectural Leadership

To foster professional exchange and intellectual dialogue within Asia's architectural community, this proposal recommends that the ARCASIA Committee on Professional Practice (ACPP) host a webinar on the afternoon of August 2nd 2025 (Sat).

The event will feature esteemed architect Ar. Ken Yeang as the keynote speaker, whose expertise in green architecture, master planning, and research will provide forward-thinking insights. Ar. Saifuddin Ahmad, President of ARCASIA, will deliver the opening address, while Ar. Zhang Wei, Chair of the ACPP, will act as convenor, overseeing coordination and moderating discussions.

The proposed webinar theme is "From Survival to Global Leadership", examining how architectural practice has evolved from responding to crises to leading global discourse on sustainability, equity, and design innovation.

The event is planned to be held virtually via a secure platform, featuring live Q&A sessions and open to ARCASIA members, architects, students, and design enthusiasts.

This webinar aims to position ARCASIA as a thought leader, promote cross-cultural collaboration, and equip professionals with knowledge to drive positive change. We respectfully seek approval to proceed with planning, pending confirmation of the theme and schedule.
