AR. REGINALD T. YANEZA
PHILIPPINES

Like most people around the age, I am an avid and passionate traveler. For years, I have traveled with my parents and friends, exploring neighboring countries like Hong Kong, Macau, Thailand, Cambodia, Laos, Vietnam, Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, and Taiwan. And it is my great desire to visit neighboring Asia countries, and see architecture awards to play a role in my education.

FIGURE 1

For instance, I particularly remember Thailand with its temples, Bangkok Festival and their Thai Cuisine, Cambodia with Angkor Wat, Angkor Thom, and their unique architecture, Laos with its traditional architecture, Vietnam with its unique architecture, Singapore with its modern architecture, Malaysia with its unique architecture, Indonesia with its unique architecture, and Taiwan with its unique architecture.

ACYA CROSSBORDER WORKSHOP

ACYA Cross-border Execution Plan

MODULE 1 - FACTORS FOR SERVICE EXPORT

In this module, the participants are encouraged to list possible factors that might effect the type, scale and approach of services to be exported, relevant to each respective Zone.

P Political	E Economic	S Social	T Technological	E Environmental	L Legal
Factors - government policy, political stability or instability in overseas markets, foreign trade policy, tax policy, labour law, environmental law, trade restrictions and so on. These are all about how and to what degree a government intervenes in the economy.	Factors - GDP economic growth, regulated service fee by professional board, interest rates, exchange rates, inflation, disposable income of consumers and businesses and so on. Significant impact on how an organisation does business and also how profitable they are.	Factors - population growth, age distribution, health consciousness, career attitudes and among other factors. This will have a direct effect on how user perception effected by public norms. Areas that involve the shared belief and attitudes of the architectural users.	Factors - Technological innovations changes and how this impacts the way we deliver our services. •New definition of architectural service •New ways of producing services •New ways of distributing services •New ways of communicating with target markets	Factors - Effect on traveling on project carbon footprint. Green development/ target commitments by governments. Clients are demanding greener and sustainable architecture. Sustainable certification, standard, tool, material and technology.	Factors - building code and safety, equal opportunities, construction standards, client / building purchaser rights, and building certification. If a practice provide service globally this becomes a very tricky area to get right as each country has its own set of rules and regulations.

1. Challenges in Crossborder
2. Propose future services
3. Execution plans

ACYA Cross-border Execution Plan
