IDEA Project – Participate, Design and Build a Better School in Cambodia

Invitation to IDEA Project Exhibition 2011

IDEA Project believes that “ALL people should have equal opportunity to ENJOY, PARTAKE IN and HAVE ACCESS TO the design of human environment and architecture.” The project aims to encourage young professional to participate in overseas voluntary services and take part in sustainable development of the world.

Supported by the Young Architect Project Fund 2010 of the Hong Kong Institute of Architects (HKIA), over 60 volunteers of IDEA Project engaged in 2 major service events this year:

- (1) Furniture design for local underprivileged South-Asian families
- (2) A pre-school construction and design in Kampot, Cambodia

The Project receives positive feedback from local community in Cambodia, overseas volunteers and professionals. With the nomination by the HKIA, IDEA Project Organising Committee was just awarded the 4th Hong Kong Volunteer Award on 17 October 2011.

The project exhibition will be held to showcase our work this year, from sketch design, models building, detailed design to the site work, and the teaching training in Cambodia. The exhibition will open to all supporting organizations, sponsors, donors, volunteers and the public to celebrate the success of the project.
