OUTLINE

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE INSTITUTE :

The Indian Institute of Architects (IIA) is the National body of Architects in the country. Established on 12th May 1917, the Institute today has more than 16500, active members and plays a major role in promoting the profession of architecture by organising and uniting the Architects of India to promote aesthetic, scientific and practical efficiency of the profession both in Practice and in Education.

The Institute has already completed 107 years of dedicated service to the profession.

LEGAL STATUS OF THE INSTITUTE :

The Indian Institute of Architects is registered under the Indian Societies Registration Act XXI of 1860 as a voluntary organization of Architects.

LEGAL STATUS OF THE ARCHITECT IN THE COUNTRY :

The title "ARCHITECT" is protected under the central Act of "Indian Architects Act 1972". The registration under the Act entitles the Architects to use the title Architect. However, the Act does not protect the practice which is left to the State and local Acts/Rules.

REGISTRATION AUTHORITY FOR ARCHITECTS IN THE COUNTRY :

The Registration authority for Architects is the Council of Architecture (COA), a body created under the provisions of the Architects Act, 1972, enacted by the Parliament of India, which came into force on 1st September 1972.

INTERNATIONAL AFFILIATIONS OF THE INSTITUTE :

In order to have wider connotations and universal brotherhood, The Institute is affiliated to number of international organizations including :

- Union International des Architects (UIA)
- Architects Regional Council Asia (ARCASIA)
- South Asian Association for Regional Co-operation of Architects (SAARCH)

CHAPTERS OF IIA

In order to disseminate the activities every Indian State / Union Territory having an active membership of 100 or more is allowed to form a "Chapter". Further, every Indian City having an active membership of 50 or more is allowed to form a "Centre" within the administrative supervision of the Chapter. Cities with less than 50 active members are also allowed to form a sub-centre. At present, we have 24 Chapters, 71 Centres and 21 Sub-Centres.
