

PAGHAHABI:

Weaving A Future-Ready Environment

The Asian Congress of Architects (ACA) is a major regional congress held every two years that take the form of a large international congress for fostering intellectual exchange and strategic discussion on regional challenges, initiatives, and development amongst hundreds of architects.

ACA 20 as proposed by the United Architects of the Philippines highlights the need for a world that transcends to the future as we enter a better normal. It brings to focus the Asian response to transformative change introduced by the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) which aims “to build a new culture: one that embraces complexity, actively manages risk, continually adapts and seeks to learn alongside delivering “results” amid the Covid-19 pandemic.
