

Society of Nepalese Architects (SONA)

नेपाली वास्तुविद् समाज

Society of Nepalese Architects (SONA) is the professional organization of the architects of Nepal, established in 1991 by a group of enthusiastic architects who represent the government, the private sector, and the academia. The main objective of SONA is to protect the rights and responsibilities of Nepalese architects and promote the profession of architecture in Nepal. SONA has grown over a period of 33 years from a small group of architects, concentrated in Kathmandu Valley, to a nationwide organization with a total membership of 1816 individuals. SONA has been registered as a professional organization in the District Administration Office, Kathmandu and abides by the rules and regulations of the government strictly. SONA was a member of South Asian Association of Architects (SAARCH), Architect's Council of Asia (ARCASIA) and Union of International Architects (UIA). SONA's long-term goal is to establish a distinct identity of architects in Nepalese society by establishing architectural value in the society, and expand its membership and coverage throughout the country. It encourages the community of architect's in Nepal to provide quality service with high level of integrity and also strives for promoting an architectural character that suits our culture, geography, and demands of the modern society. SONA will actively engage in strengthening the network with regional and international associations of architects with the objective of exposing Nepalese architects with international architectural trends.
