

AAM HISTORY

Architects Association of Macau (AAM)

March 4th 1980, a group of self-employed local architects founded Associacao dos Arquitectos em Actividade Privada em Macau (Macau Association of Architects in Private Practice) – the predecessor of AAM. The name of the association was changed to Associacao dos Arquitectos de Macau (Macau Association of Architects) and its constitution was published in the Macau Government Gazette in January 1988.

As an international recognized association of professional architects and an active member of the international organization, AAM has maintained a close relationship with different architectural associations globally and actively involved with UIA, ARCASIA, ACA, WACA and CIALP in the past 30 plus years.

Many Successful International Conferences and Events were hosted by AAM in Macau, including:

- The 7th CIALP Congress in June 1999;
- The 12th CIALP Congress in December 2010; External Knowledge Exchange
- An architecture exhibition on “Modernism in the Portuguese speaking Countries” in Tokyo and Macau in 2011;
- The 11th Asian Conference of Architects and the 25th ARCASIA Council Meeting in November 2014, etc.
- The WACA Annual Council Meeting and Academic Conference in 2011;
- The WACA Annual Council Meeting and Academic Conference in 2016;
- Macau heritage architectural visit each year since 2023;
- Community projects “Go to School” each year since 2022 and Student Camp each year 2024.

Locally, through organizing activities, CPDs, field trips, courses, workshops and other less formal lunches or dinner gatherings, AAM strives to promote the fellowship among its members and that with other professionals of the building industry, as well as the government departments.
